“This is something City Council and I are very proud of. By having the lowest average property taxes of any shore community in the State of New Jersey, we open up more opportunities for families and benefits to our local economy,” said Mayor Patrick Rosenello. “North Wildwood is a great town to vacation in and a great town to live in. Along with maintaining the lowest average property taxes of any shore community in the State, we continue to make improvements to: buildings, parks, grounds, beach access and infrastructure.”
